Spring Break!

This March issue of Happenings @ Hannon may land into neglected inboxes, as most of our community has left campus to visit family, bask in the sun, perform service through an alternative break, or just get some much deserved rest and relaxation.

For those of you who aren't officially on Spring Break, the William H. Hannon Library is closed this weekend, and we're open with full services from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. next Monday through Friday. We resume regular hours on Saturday March 9.

We're taking advantage of the quiet space here in the library to get ready for the last two months of the semester. Read on to see what we have in store for you.

Warmest regards,

Jamie Hazlitt
Outreach Librarian and Editor, Happenings @ Hannon

Kudos!

This month's newsletter would be incomplete without a note of congratulations to our very own Raymundo Andrade '04, who was recognized as the 2013 LMU's Barbara Bonney Staff Member of the Year.

Congratulations, Ray!

Image of the Month

The banner image in this month's H@H shows a small selection of the creative work done by K-8 students in the LMU Family of Schools.

This annual exhibition, with work reflecting the theme "Neighborhood," is on display in the Thursday April 4, 5:30 p.m.

Both events will take place in the Von der Ahe Family Suite, and are free and open to the public.

Faculty Pub Night: At a Crossroads

At the third Pub Night of the semester, Dr. Martha McCarthy, Presidential Professor in the Department of Educational Leadership, will be discussing her book At a Crossroads: The Educational Leadership Professoriate in the 21st Century.

Her research is not only of importance to those in the field of education, but her findings have important implications for faculty across all disciplines.

Tuesday March 16 / 5:30 p.m.

Citation Management Made Easy

How would you like to create your bibliography with a click of a button?

zotero

Would you like all of the sources for your research projects and papers saved and organized in one place and accessible from any computer?

Zotero [zoh-TAIR-oh] is a free, easy-to-use tool to help you collect, organize, cite, and share your research sources. It lives right where you do your work - in the web browser itself.

Register for one of two convocation workshops (March 14 or April 2), and learn how to become a more efficient, organized researcher with this simple, powerful tool.

Undergraduate Library Research Award: New Group Category!

For the past six years, since the launch of the Undergraduate Library Research Award, we've heard feedback from faculty and students that many excellent research projects taking place on campus are ineligible for the award because they were done as a group.

In response, we're delighted to announce that, this year, we will be offering a $1000 grand prize to the best library research project undertaken by a group. (Award will be shared amongst group members.) This is in addition to one $1000 grand prize in individual winner, and two $450 individual honorable mentions.

The award application deadline is April 15.
